

Have you thought about serving on a Board of Directors?
Are you interested in the well-being of youth in our community?

The Abbotsford Youth Commission is seeking applicants to volunteer to serve on our Board of Directors. We are looking for people who are strong advocates for youth in our community and are committed to identifying, promoting, improving, increasing and providing services and programs to youth in Abbotsford.

The Abbotsford Youth Commission is particularly interested in people with skills or expertise in the following areas:

- Financial Management
- Marketing
- Law
- Youth Serving Professionals

New board members must be 19 years or older and willing and able to attend monthly board meetings on the 2nd Thursday of each month from 4:30 – 6:00 pm and to attend other meetings and events as they are able. Up to four positions are available and applications will be reviewed by the nominating committee as they are received.

To apply, please submit:

- A short statement of no more than one page introducing yourself and outlining why you would be interested in becoming a member of the Abbotsford Youth Commission's Board of Directors
- Applications are requested immediately and will be accepted until mid February
 - Submit applications and direct inquiries to info@abbyouth.com or 604-854-8785
- Applications will be held in strict confidence

The AYC exists to identify, promote, improve, increase and provide services and programs for youth in Abbotsford. Our vision is that Abbotsford is a city where every youth feels included, safe, valued, empowered and connected. We strive to achieve this vision by providing youth with programs that are engaging, educational, recreational, and preventative in nature while maintaining a safe and supportive environment. We also work actively to be the voice of Abbotsford's youth and to advocate on their behalf.

Please see our website for more information about our programs and services www.abbyouth.com
